

International Student Application Process

As a non-government school, our situation parallels that of private colleges. Students first apply for admission to the school. This application must be made by ALL students seeking enrollment, whether or not they are already enrolled students. Re-enrollment is NOT automatic.

RBCS is trying to educate Christian young people for Christ's service. If pursuing this goal is not the desire of the student and his family, we cannot develop a cooperative team effort in the development of our students toward Christian maturity.

Admission to RBCS is based on the following:

- Prior academic and behavioral performance
- International Student Reference Forms (Pastoral, School, and Student)
- Standardized test scores (SLEP, ACT, SAT, TOEFL, or other accepted test).
- Phone Interview with the International Student Coordinator, if needed.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Step 1. Complete forms and Return to RBCS Business Office for Processing Academy forms to submit: (7th-12th grade)

- _____ Admission Application
- _____ International Academy Student Questionnaire Form (filled out by student)
- _____ SLEP test score sheet
- _____ Middle and High school transcripts (translated into English)
- _____ Pastoral Reference—submit to church
- _____ School Reference—submit to school
- _____ Student Recommendation—submit to teacher
- _____ RBCS Financial Policies and Agreement

- _____ International Tuition and Fee Payment Worksheet
- _____ Registration fee ($150)

Step 2. If Accepted

- Notified by email or phone call by the RBCS International Student Coordinator.
- RBCS Student Coordinator will mail the I-20. Students must arrange an interview with the U.S. Embassy in their respective country to obtain an F-1 Visa.
- RBCS Student Coordinator will contact with housing options (with Host Families).
- Full payment must be received or a payment plan worked out with the business office before the student can be enrolled (Contact Business Office, (850)678-7358, x246).

Step 3. If Denied Admission to RBCS

- Notified by email or phone call by the RBCS International Student Coordinator.

Host Family Rules Agreement

Your host family has voluntarily opened their home to you. Rocky Bayou Christian School requires all of its international students to obey the rules of their host families. In addition, all international students must agree to obey the following rules:

- No smoking. International students at RBCS, regardless of age, are not allowed to smoke—even if the student’s host family allows smoking.
- The use of alcohol and illicit drugs is prohibited.
- International students may not leave their homes without adult supervision or the permission of either their host mother or host father.
- International students must obey all rules set forth by their host families. This includes, but is not limited to, obeying curfews, attending church with the host families, and performing any chores assigned by the host families. If an international student believes he or she is being treated unfairly, he or she should contact the RBCS International Student Coordinator.
- International students may not, under any circumstances, threaten or blackmail their host families.
- International students may not obtain a driver’s license or operate a motorized vehicle unless they live with their biological parent(s), grandparent(s), aunt(s), or uncle(s).
- Failure to follow these rules can result in expulsion from school. Please sign on the line below, indicating that you have read, understood and agree to follow the rules listed on this page.
